

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Summer Reading in Full Swing at Ajax Public Library

13 July 2026—Summer at the Library is filled with reading, prizes, and fun for all ages!

Kids can join the TD Summer Reading Club for free. To join the club, visit any Ajax Public Library branch to sign up for the Club and get a free kit. Kids can record their reading and get entered in the weekly, monthly, and Grand Prize draws! Participants can also earn points towards prizes by attending programs, walking or biking to the Library, taking a tour of the Grandview Kids outdoor Sensory Trail, or by checking out items from the Library.

Teens can join their own Summer Reading Club, read their way through reading trope bookmarks (available at any Ajax Public Library branch), or participate in the Teen Summer Writing Contest. Prizes are available for participation – and sign up is available online!

Adults can get in on the fun with Adult Summer Book Bingo. Pick-up a bingo card in any Library branch or access one online – complete the reading challenges for an entry into the monthly prize draw!

“The Library is inviting all Ajax residents to participate in free activities throughout the summer,” says Christy Harper, Manager of Public Service. “From reading challenges to exciting programs and prizes, we invite everyone to discover how the Library can make your summer special.”
